

What Christians should know about

JEW FOR JESUS™

“I am not ashamed of the gospel,
for it is the power of God unto salvation,
to the Jew first . . .”

—Romans 1:16

OUR ROOTS

Jews for Jesus was established in 32 A.D., give or take a year.

Yes, the first century missionaries were Jewish! And we are doing our best to carry on their legacy.

Moishe Rosen officially founded the Jews for Jesus organization in 1973, tapping talented young believers to help him revolutionize Jewish evangelism with a creative, savvy approach.

David Brickner succeeded him as executive director in 1996 and has kept the ministry fresh and on the cutting edge, without compromising our mission: "We exist to make the Messiahship of Jesus an unavoidable issue to our Jewish people worldwide."

OUR MISSIONARIES

Jewish evangelism is tough. Our missionaries must reach out to many (be it through street evangelism, phone calls, or knocking on doors) to win the hearts of a few. They are persistent and professional, but also compassionate in communicating the gospel. Jews for Jesus missionaries are committed to an “apostolic” lifestyle, which means making themselves:

- available to meet one-on-one with Jewish inquirers.
- vulnerable to the rejection that is a natural result of bringing an unpopular message to the lost.
- and mobile—ready to go where they are most needed.

Missionaries are responsible to raise their own support team—people like you who will care, pray and give so that Jewish people can hear the message.

YOU CAN MAKE A DIFFERENCE!

PRAY

for Jews for Jesus, for the gospel message to fall on receptive hearts and for more Christians to understand that Jewish people, like all people, need Jesus. Our newsletter will help you pray for us effectively.

GIVE

Jews for Jesus has no denominational sponsorship. God provides for us through individuals who share our vision for Jewish people to know Jesus.

TELL YOUR FRIENDS

If they are Jewish, please tell them about Jesus. If they are Christians, consider telling them about Jews for Jesus— maybe they'll become our friends, too!

COME AND SEE

what it's like to be part of this adventure via short-term missions, volunteer work or possibly even full-time ministry!

Please use the tear-off portion of this brochure to do any of the above. You can make a difference!
